INNOVATIVE ANNOUNCES EVO® POLE Graceful Space-Saving Mount for One or Two Monitors

Chicago, Illinois—June 13, 2011—Innovative Office Products, Inc. (www.lcdarms.com), a pioneer in designing and manufacturing ergonomic mounting solutions for LCD monitors, laptops, and keyboards, will introduce the EVO® Pole at the Neocon World Trade Fair in Chicago, Illinois.

The EVO® Pole joins the EVO® LCD Arm as part of Innovative's high-style EVO® mounting solution brand. The EVO® Pole is a sleek and graceful means to suspend one or two monitors above the work surface, creating new desk space and allowing for more ergonomic monitor positioning.

"We are pleased to extend the EVO® brand with this new offering. We believe that the EVO® Pole fills a need for aesthetically pleasing yet functional LCD mounts at an exciting new price point," said Bud Oddsen, president of Innovative Office Products. "EVO® Pole is a particularly ideal solution for benching and desk systems as well as multiple-function workspaces."

EVO® Pole features include:

- Available in configurations to support one or two monitors
- Accommodates monitors up to 20 lbs
- Arm extends up to 18.6 in. and offers a vertical adjustment range of 14 in.
- Thoughtful cable management keeps the desk organized
- Thoughtful features reduce installation time and save installation crews money:
 - Quick-install VESA adapter
 - Desk mount with integrated handle
- Environmentally-friendly manufacturing methods, and extensive use of recycled and recyclable components. EVO® is 97% recyclable, with 37% recycled content.
